CITY OF GAINESVILLE'S RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION

The Defendant, the City of Gainesville ("City"), responds to the correspondingly numbered paragraphs of Plaintiff's First Request for Production served on September 24, 2012 as follows:

1. The documents will be made available for inspection and copying.
2. The documents will be made available for inspection and copying.
3. The Defendant objects to this request as being overbroad and burdensome. Responding as "you" is defined in the definition section would entail examining the emails of all 2,000+ City employees and anyone they may have consulted on this matter to determine whether they had emails during that time associated with the binding proposal or the PPA. In accordance with this objection, the City will make available all of the emails of those individuals listed in Request to Produce Number 1 on the subject requested for the time period referenced.

4. The City objects to this request as being overbroad and burdensome. Responding as “your” is defined in the definition section would entail examining the correspondence of all 2,000+ City employees and anyone they may have consulted on this matter to determine whether they had correspondence relating to negotiating the terms of the PPA. Further, there is no time limit specified in the Request. In accordance with this objection, the City will make available any correspondence (outside of emails provided in response to Request to Produce Numbers 3, 4, 6, and 7) of those individuals identified in Request to Produce Number 1 for the time period between May 1, 2008 and May 7, 2009.
5. The documents will be made available for the time period between May 1, 2008 and May 7, 2009.
6. The documents will be made available for the time period between May 1, 2008 and May 7, 2009.
7. The documents will be made available for the time period between May 1, 2008 and May 7, 2009.
8. The documents will be made available for inspection and copying.
